Housing Hand

What's your plan?

Renting a student house with friends?
Moving into student accommodation?
Securing your next place for second or third year?

We take out the stress. For many,especially international students, needing guarantors, financial reassurance or supporting documents can become a barrier to securing the accommodation you want.

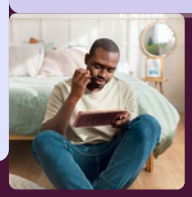

Instead of worrying about paperwork, focus on finding the right place to live. No matter where you're from, we're here to help you secure your next home.

Just started looking?

Guarantor Passport®
Get prepared before you start your property search. A Guarantor Passport shows landlords you're ready to rent before you've even found a property.

House Finder
Our house finder service can connect you with trusted accommodation providers and landlords to find your perfect match.

4,000+
accommodation partners.

Found somewhere but don't have a tenancy agreed?

100,000+
tenants supported. You too?

Guarantor service
Most landlords and accommodation providers in the UK need you to have a guarantor someone who's responsible for paying your rent if you fall behind. If you don't have one, we'll help you get access to more housing options and provide the security your landlord is looking for.

Tenancy agreed, ready to move?

Go Depositless
Reduce large upfront costs with deposit-free renting.

Only My Share
Protection if a housemate fails to pay their share of rent.

Health & Wellbeing Support
Access GP services, mental health support, legal guidance and financial advice throughout your tenancy.

> All of my questions were answered quickly and the answers were very helpful. It made renting a house as an international student easier and everyone was very nice when I was struggling with some parts of the application.
